

FRIEDRICH-ALEXANDER
UNIVERSITÄT
ERLANGEN-NÜRNBERG

FACHBEREICH WIRTSCHAFTS-WISSENSCHAFTEN

Conference

Taxation, Social Norms and Compliance

March 6–8, 2014, Nuremberg

Submission Deadline: December 1, 2013

Keynote Lectures

JACOB GOEREE / University of Zurich

MARTIN KOCHER / University of Munich

JOEL SLEMROD / University of Michigan

ERICH KIRCHLER / University of Vienna

cebid
center for economic behavior
and institution design

Theme of the Conference

The conference will investigate the extent and determinants of individual/firm compliance with laws, rules, and regulations regarding taxation and social policy. Particular emphasis is placed on the behavioral foundations of compliance as well as the role of institutions, social and cultural norms.

Keynote lectures are given by leading researchers in the relevant fields:

JACOB GOEREE / University of Zurich

MARTIN KOCHER / University of Munich

JOEL SLEMROD / University of Michigan

ERICH KIRCHLER / University of Vienna

Scientific Committee

Thiess Buettner, Dirk Engelmann, Veronika Grimm,
Johannes Rincke, Matthias Wrede

Call for Papers

The conference welcomes theoretical and empirical submissions on any topic related to taxation, tax compliance and social norms.

Submission Deadline: December 1, 2013

Papers should be submitted electronically (in PDF format) at the conference webpage:

www.cebid.fau.eu

Notification of acceptance will be sent by January 15, 2014.

Accommodation and Travel Cost

Second-class/APEX travel expenses will be refunded to presenters of accepted papers. Accommodation and meals are provided.

Special Issue

Accepted papers may be submitted to a special issue of the Journal of Economic Behavior and Organization for possible publication.

Best Paper Award

All papers will be considered for a best paper award, which carries a prize of € 1,000.

Location

Nuremberg is a major transport node in Germany, easily reached by plane and high-speed trains.

The conference will take place in the magnificent Fa-ber-Castell Castle.

Organizers

The conference is organized by a multi-disciplinary research group at Friedrich Alexander University (FAU), which includes economists who specialize in public finance and behavioral economics and scholars from various other fields.

Information on the research initiative is available at www.cebid.fau.eu

Sponsors

Published by: FAU Erlangen-Nürnberg, School of Business and Economics; Pictures: Faber-Castell, Elsevier; Layout: zur.gestaltung, Nürnberg; Print: Nova Druck Goppert GmbH, Nürnberg; Publication date: June 2013